A Man's drink

A Harley Street Doctor (M.D., M.R.C.P., M.R.C.S.) writes: 'Cocoa has a definite value and place in the nourishment of children, especially as a winter drink, because of the fats it contains.'

They need the extra nourishment of

BOURNVILLE COCOA

MADE BY CADBURY IN THE FACTORY IN A GARDEN

Somebody has told the boys how polar explorers have often made cocoa their standby. So Bournville Cocoa, you see, is a real man's drink. It is easy for them to be loyal to their heroes, because Bournville has such a lovely chocolaty flavour. That steaming cup of Bournville at eleven o'clock every morning is indeed an enjoyable duty. Milk by itself, of course, is a splendid builder of resistance; but Bournville Cocoa mixed with milk is a 45 per cent better protection against winter's ills and chills.
